Getting Along Rules for Raising Children Ages 9-13

The handouts included in this section may be used and modified for use with parents and students. They were developed by Dr. Merle Marsh, Head of the Lower and Middle Schools, Worcester Country School. According to Marsh, "All parents will not experience these problems as children go through the middle school years, but it's often best to prepare parents for what may be 'unsettled times' in their children's lives.
